

A Roadmap to Quality

Reformation

of Higher Education and Scientific Research,
Kurdistan Region, Iraq

Prof. Dlawer Ala'Aldeen
Minister of H.E.S.R.

Universities in Kurdistan Region

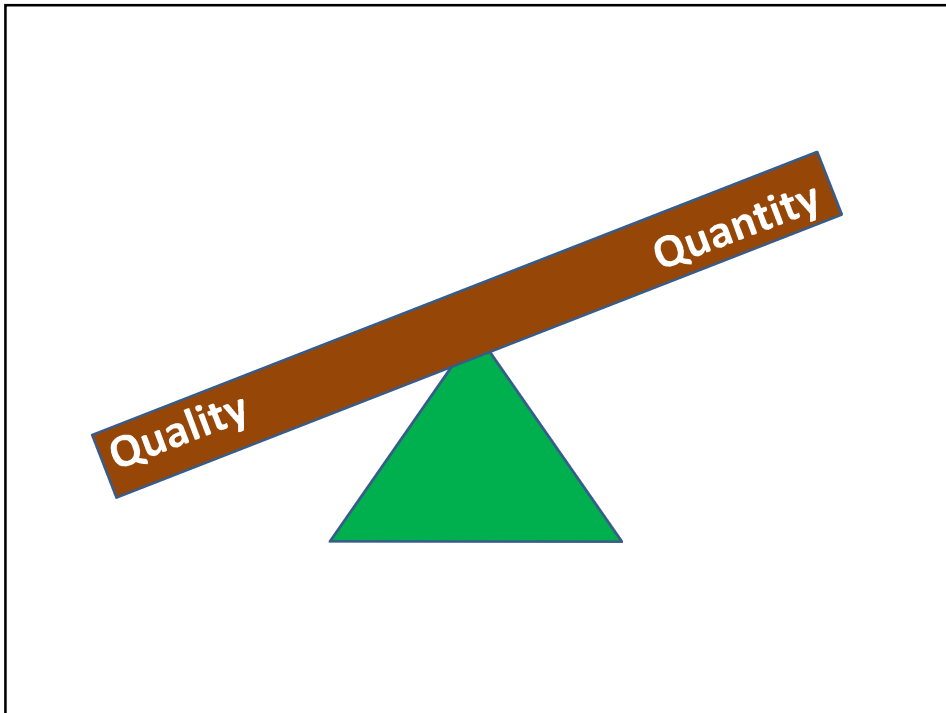

Year	Number of Universities	Number of students (total)
1991	1	6,000
2011	22	120,000

Public Universities: 11

Private Universities: 11

Student numbers in Kurdistan Region

Year	Number of High school graduates	Number Accepted in HEI
2009	27,344	6,000
2010	40,000	33,700
2011	Est. 55,000	35,000

New road map

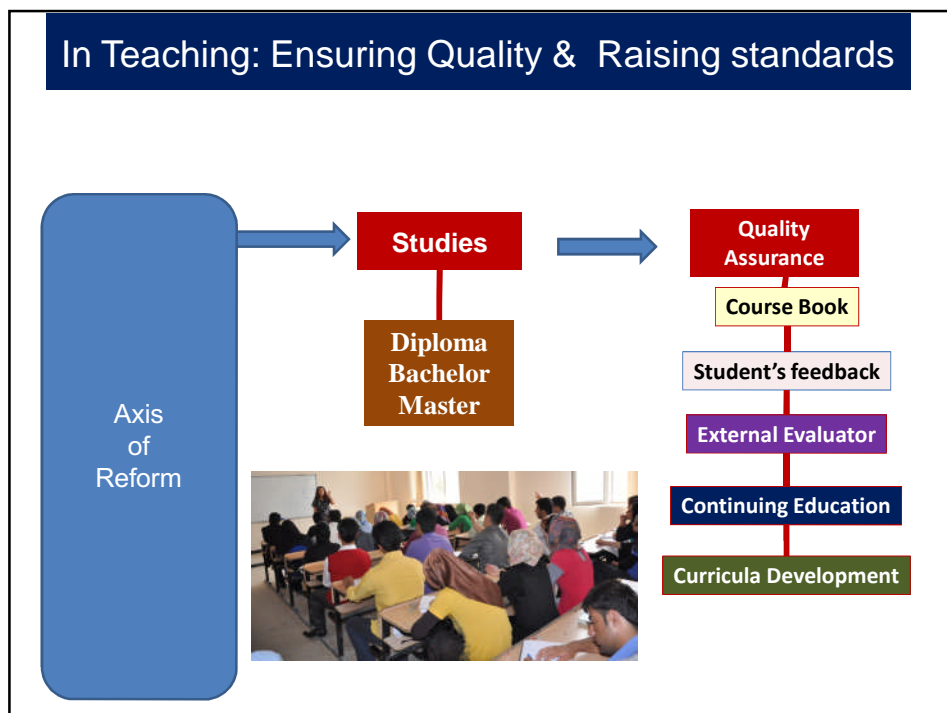

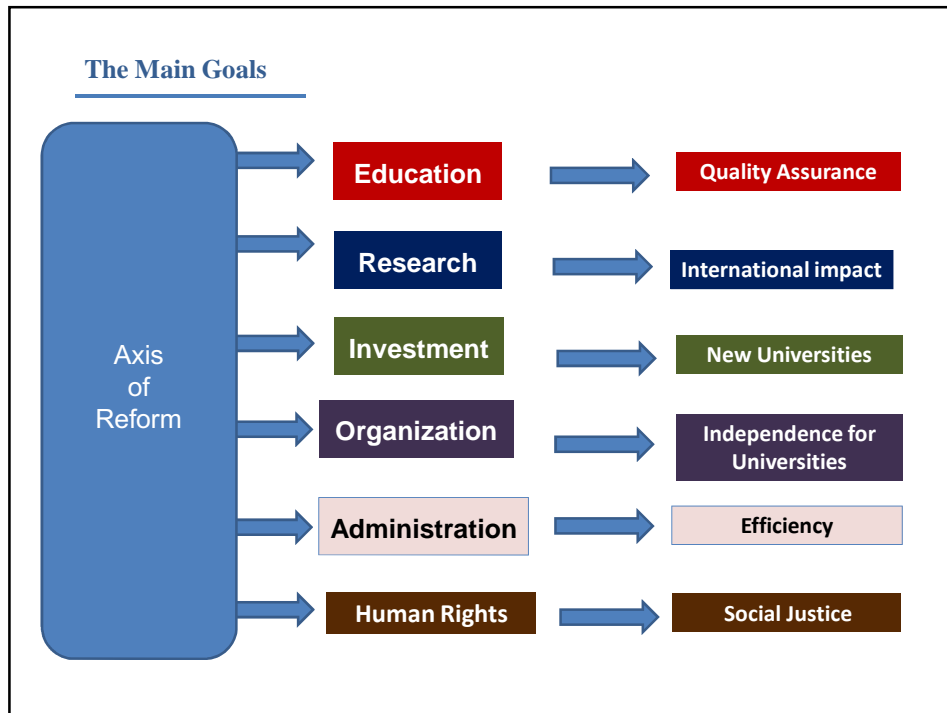

Vision document

- Reform the system
- Build capacity
- Focus on Quality

Nov 2009

Teaching Quality Assurance for Sustainable Development

Students have a say in

- What they are taught
- Why they are taught
- What they will be examined on
- How the process can be improved
- How their rights can be protect

Student
Feedback

External assessors

Continuous Academic Development

Academics have the right to

- Keep up to date
- Extend their network
- Communicate their science

50 hours of learning, by taking part in seminars, conferences, publications

$100M/y Capacity Building Project

By 2009, a total of 1200 Scholars sent abroad

2010 1500 scholarship awards

By June 2011 1000 scholarship awards
Round 2 is pending

Investment in the infrastructure

Inaugurating four new Universities

Halabja

Garmian

Raparin

Zakho

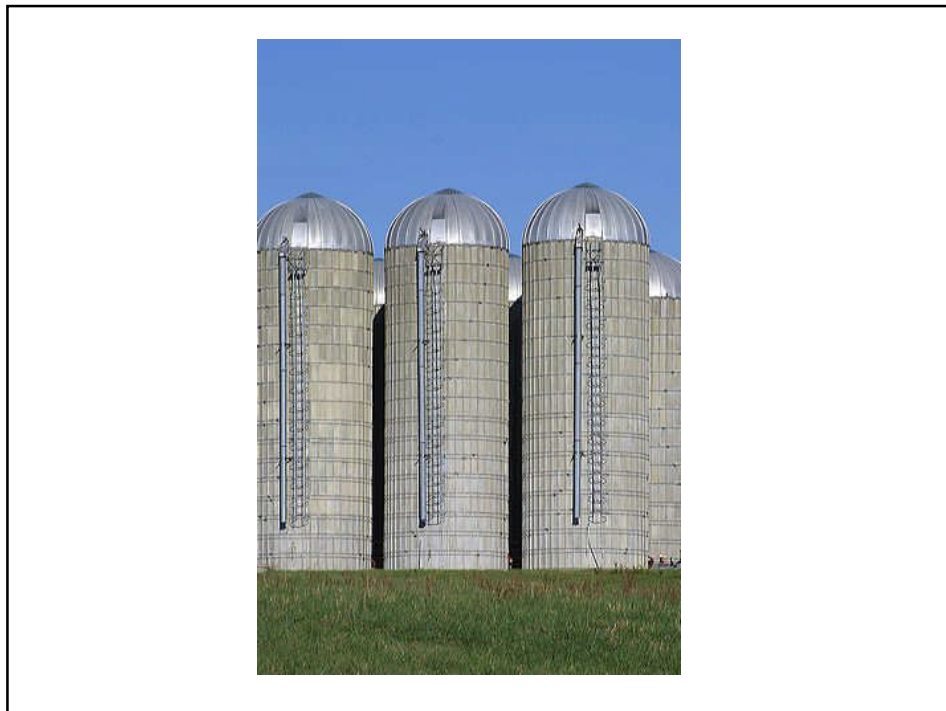

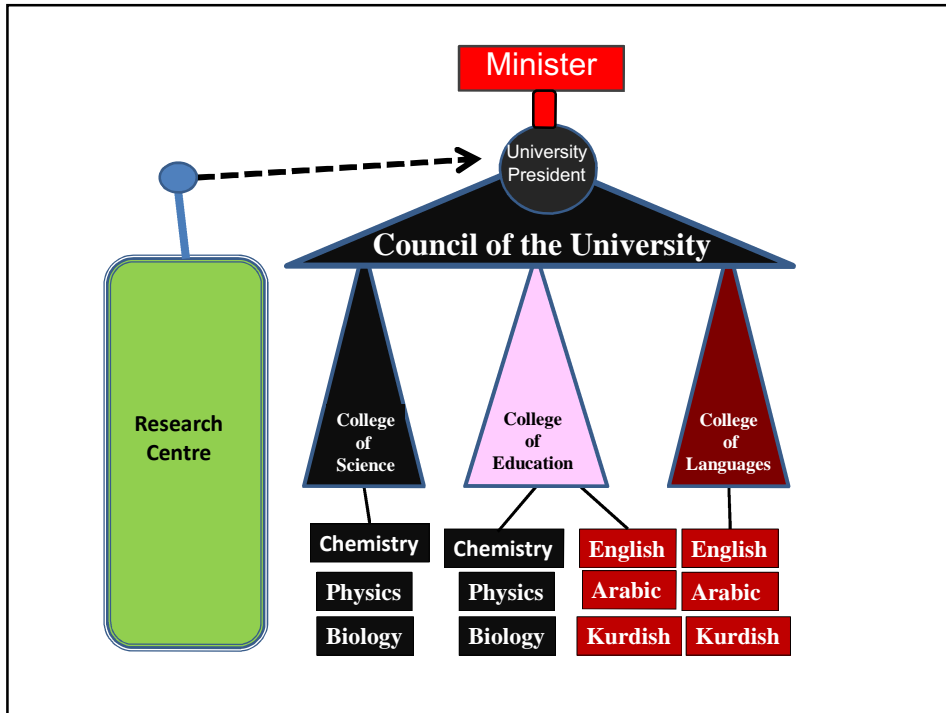

Reforming the University Management Structure

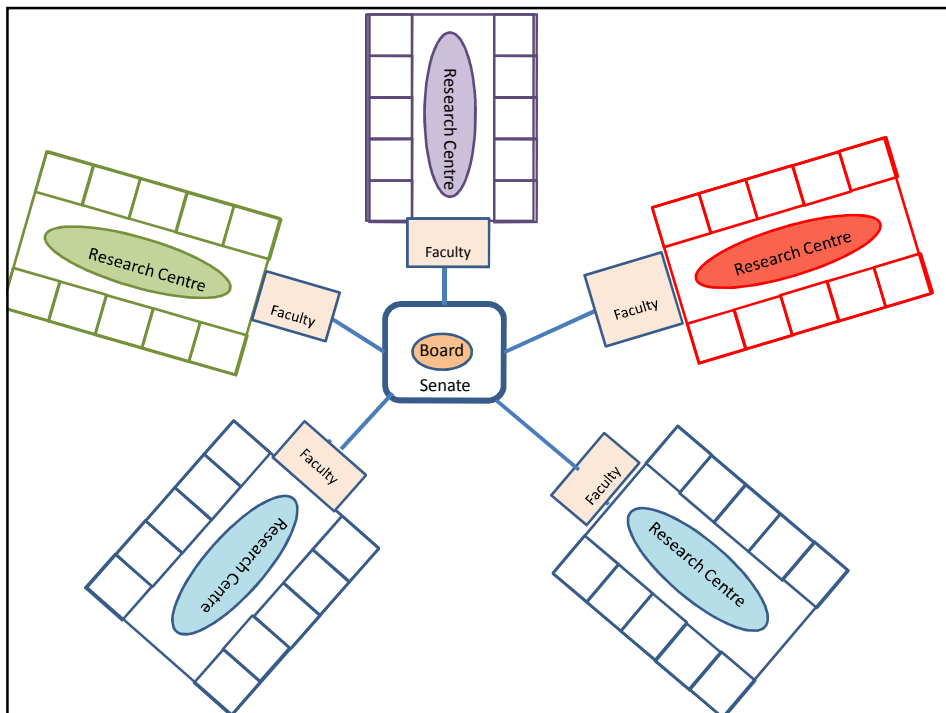

Axis
of
Reform

Independent
Universities

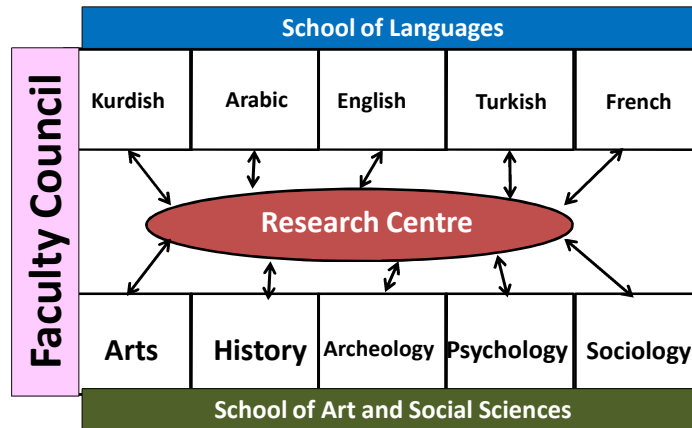

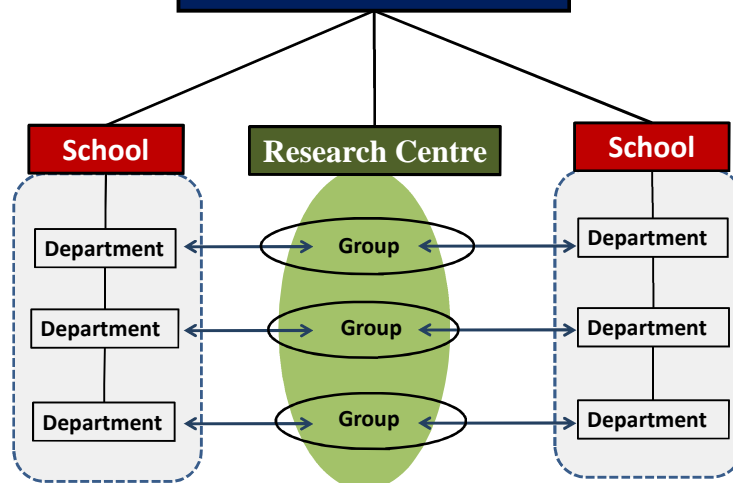

New management structure

The Structure of the Merged Colleges

Integrated Faculty

Faculty	Scientific Departments
Faculty of human sciences	Languages, history, Geography, archaeology, Sociology, psychology, arts and other departments.
Faculty of Law and Management	Law, economy, administration, Finance, Media and other departments
Faculty of Religious Sciences	Religious studies and other departments
Faculty of natural and life sciences	Physics, chemistry, Mathematics, Geology Biology, agricultural departments..etc
Faculty of Medical Sciences	Medicine, nursery, pharmacy, dentistry, veterinary and other departments.
Faculty of Engineering Sciences	Civil engineering, architecture, mechanic, electricity, electronic, computer, petroleum and other departments.

