

Education for future members of the legal profession
in emerging economies:
Liberal arts in the curricula of law faculties in Turkey

Lale Sirmen

Faculty of Law, Bilkent University, Turkey

Compulsory courses

- Civil Law
- Family Law
- Law of Obligations
- Property Law
- Law of Inheritance
- Roman Law
- Law of Taxation
- Commercial Law
- Constitutional Law
- Criminal Law
- Labor Law
- Administrative Law
- Civil and Criminal Procedural Law
- Enforcement and Bankruptcy Law
- Public and Private International Law

Compulsory or elective courses

- Competition Law
- Intellectual Property Law
- European Union Law
- International Human Rights Law
- Economics
- Public Finance
- Accounting

Elective courses

- International Organizations
- Politics of International Economy
- Commercial Arbitration Law
- Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards
- Law of Capital Markets
- Financial Institutions Law
- Energy Law
- Settlement Of Energy Investment Disputes
- Humanitarian Law
- Consumer Law
- Environmental Law
- Basic Concepts of Law of Contracts

Subjects which fall within the scope of Liberal Arts – either compulsory or elective

Bilkent Law Faculty

- Economics
- Cultures, Civilizations and Ideas
- English and Composition I and II
- History of Turkey
- Social and Political Philosophy I and II
- Selected Topics in the Humanities
- Philosophy of Law
- Sociology of Law
- Introduction to Economic Analysis of Law
- Introduction to Law and Economics of Regulation and Antitrust
- International Economics
- Law, Film, and Literature

Galatasaray Law Faculty

- Culture of Law
- Sociology of Law
- History of Law
- Legal French and English
- Political History
- Gender Politics and Law

Ankara Law Faculty

- Philosophy of Law
- Sociology of Law
- Introduction to Sociology
- Political History
- Law and Literature
- Law, Ethics, Ethics of Profession

Istanbul Law Faculty

- Philosophy of Law
- Sociology of Law
- Psychology
- City and Culture of İstanbul
- Culture of Disaster